

TEXT-IN TICKET

DAILY
EVERY WORK DAY

One text a day covers your timesheet. Say it in this order, every time:

Colored words are keywords — that's exactly what the system is listening for. Everything else is just your own words.

EACH JOB YOU WORKED — SAY ANOTHER ONE THE SAME WAY FOR EVERY JOB

JOB 4949 3 HOURS cleaned pistonJOB 4866 5 HOURS polished rods

Not a customer job? Say JOB SHOP instead of a job number. Don't know the job #? Say JOB UNKNOWN — the office will sort it out.

FINISH TIME

OUT 3:30

4

LUNCH BREAK

LUNCH 30min

No lunch? Just say NO LUNCH instead.

5

PER DIEM — ONLY IF STAYING OVERNIGHT

PD Saint John

Not staying over? Just leave this line out — no need to say anything.

6

PARTS OR SUPPLIES USED — OPTIONAL, JOB FIRST, THEN KEYWORD, QTY, DESCRIPTION

JOB 4949 SUPPLIES 2 wire brushes

Say the job number first, every time — that's how the office knows which job to bill it to. On a multi-job day especially, don't count on "whatever job I was just talking about."

PARTS works too, and typos are fine — say it one line per item, or list them together on one line: "job 4358 supplies wire brushes x2, brake cleaner x1".

Describe it clearly enough that Tracy knows exactly what it is — a part number is great if you have one. Or take a photo of it instead — not both, one or the other, or it'll confuse her.

Snap anything that might help the office down the road — wear, damage, before/after, whatever seems useful. Just add the job number to the caption. Video works too — keep it short.

MORE THINGS YOU CAN TEXT

JOB — get the full job number listPHONE# — get everyone's phone numberTS — check what you've logged todayDAY OFF — mark today as off, nothing workedAPP — get the link to the phone app

There's also a mobile app if you'd rather log your hours that way — ask for the Mobile App Ticket. And every so often Niki will make a change to your timesheet — if she does, she'll text you a note so you can confirm it.
